DAGUERRETYPE, AMBROTYPE, And PHOTOGRAPHIC Rooms.

A. McDONALD returns his sincere thanks to the citizens of Fort Wayne and surrounding country for their liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon him; and would respectfully invite their attention to a new style of pictures beautifully gotten up on Glass, and also on paper, which he is prepared to execute equal to anything of the kind now in the United States. These pictures are peculiarly like-like and true to nature. The Ambrotype being the latest improvement, far exceeds the Daguerotypes with the accuracy of delineation.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1856.

Democratic Club.—A meeting is to be held at the Court House, this evening, for the purpose of forming a democratic club. Its importance, and the necessity for such an organization, need not be apparent to all. Our adversaries are active and persevering, and we also must be on the alert. We call on the democrats to be present, and to organize the club.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.—This number commences a new volume of the Sentinel, and we devote to the fact as much of our space as we can. We should certainly feel obliged to our subscribers who have suggested this for several years, who have been patient and square up. We need money, and they would help us amazingly if they were to do so, and even those who are not much behind, would pay up or pay in advance, they also would be a help, and all the small sums owing us would amount to a very respectable aggregate. Who will be the first, and set a good example to the rest?

Prof. Jas. E. McDONALD made an excellent speech to our citizens on Saturday night last. The questions at issue were boldly and clearly put, and the democratic position strongly and ably defended by this distinguished democrat. His speech abounded with facts and arguments, and was addressed to the judgment rather than to the feelings of his hearers. It was just such a speech as the occasion called for, and we regret that our limits forbid us doing more ample justice to it by a more extended notice.

We take the democrats, in other places when the McDONALD may speak, to be sure and hear his speech. It will well repay them.

Our Prospects.—From all quarters the news is most encouraging for the success of the democratic ticket. The democratic party is thoroughly united upon Buchanan and Breckinridge, and every paper contains lists of prominent old line democrats who have declared their intention of voting for them as the only national candidates in Kentucky except the Know Nothings are abandoning their judges and enrolling themselves under the democratic banner, and that state will be a decided one a triumphant majority.

The nomination of Fremont by a sectional convention, not representing more than half the vote in the Union, is scouted by all friends of Union, and his election, under such circumstances would be considered as endangering the permanence of that Union, under which these two have attained such an unstamped prosperity. Every friend of the Union, every good man, who does not wish to see the country torn by sectional strife will vote the Democratic ticket. There are now only two great parties—the national, or democratic party, and the sectional party, consisting of factionists, all kinds and colors—abolitionists, know nothings, and fanatics of every hue and stripe. Between these two the people have to judge, and certainly no doubt what the result will be.

Foreign News.—No War with England!—News from England by the Asia, immediately after Mr. Cramp's arrival in that country, reported to be ordered to the American ship, and great excitement existed. The post, however, decreed a war with this country, looked upon the matter in its true light, and no personal affair between Mr. Cramp and this government.

After news by the Canada states that the excitement existing on Mr. Cramp's arrival, and the fact that Mr. Dallas was not to be elected. The recruiting business was regarded as definitely settled, and hopes were freely indulged that the Central American question would be soon settled. Mr. Buchanan's nomination was but little stir. Peace meetings and friendliness to America were abundant.

Bag is a good dog.—It is amusing to see the side boasting and bragging indulged in by certain small-fry fusion papers. They claim that the nomination of Fremont is received with enthusiasm, and will draw to its support numbers of democrats; that a large portion of the German vote is going for him—notwithstanding he was nominated by the New York Know-Nothing Convention, and is identified with their proscription measures! They claim the votes of states, which they know there is no possibility of their getting; and are loudly announcing that they will secure majorities of 200 or 300 in counties where they will assuredly be beaten that amount or more. This is in accordance with their regular tactics; but for our part we cannot see the use of such wanton lies. Nobody believes them, or is deceived by them; but they seem to have got so habituated to the practice that they can't help it. They think "bag is a good dog," but the old adage teaches us that "holdfast is a better dog." One actual majority at the polls is worth a dozen anticipated ones.

Fourth of July.—The glorious Fourth was celebrated in an appropriate manner by our citizens, being the first general celebration we have had for many years. The vast number in attendance and the interest taken in the proceedings show that the spirit of '76 is not yet extinct among us, and that when the right men take hold of the matter a celebration can be got up here as well as in any other place. The committee of young men who managed this celebration deserve the thanks of the community for the able and judicious manner in which they discharged their self-imposed duty.

The day was ushered in by a salute of thirty-one guns and the ringing of bells. Before the hour for commencing the exercises, hundreds of persons from the surrounding country crowded the streets; and when the procession was formed it was the largest ever seen here. On arriving at the grove, a fervent prayer was put up by Rev. Mr. Kinnam, of the Methodist church; Dr. Sturges read the immortal Declaration of Independence, and C. Case delivered a chaste and patriotic address. The Declaration was then read in German by Mr. Weber, followed by H. C. Grey in a beautiful and eloquent oration, also in the German language. The exercises were agreeably diversified by the German Singing Association, who sang several appropriate songs, and by Strube's Brass Band and Fairfield and Luncford's martial music.

In the evening we had a brilliant display of fireworks, which was witnessed by thousands of admiring spectators—for the largest assemblage we have seen in Fort Wayne.

Everything went off pleasantly and agreeably, and all felt gratified and proud that Fort Wayne had at length shook off her apathy, and celebrated the auspicious day in a manner worthy at once of the ocean and of our rising city.

Homicide.—A shocking catastrophe occurred in Washington township, on Monday evening last, about eight o'clock, resulting in the death of Catherine McMahon, wife of Patrick McMahon. It appears some difficulty had occurred between deceased and her brother, James Bowser, arising out of a dispute about their claims to the land of their deceased father. Catherine struck James several blows with a club, and as she was leaving him he picked up a piece of a bench limb and threw at her, which striking on her temple caused her death within an hour after. An inquest was held on Tuesday and a verdict returned in accordance with the above facts. Bowser was arrested, and after examination before Wm. Stewart, Esq., was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000.

Drunkenly.—On Monday night last, some daring scoundrels broke into the hardware store of Messrs. Oakley & Son, on Columbia street, by prying open the front door with a crow-bar or some similar instrument. They appear to have lit a candle and searched thoroughly for tools to open the safe—having used drills, saws, and chisels, but without effect. The safe resisted all their efforts. They took some ten or fifteen dollars from the till, which is probably all they got for their pains, as no goods have been missed. The captain of a boat lying in the canal at the rear of the store, got up about two o'clock in the morning to shut his cabin window, and noticed a light in the store; it is probable the noise he made in shutting the window alarmed the thieves, and induced them to decamp.

There are evidently some scoundrels in our midst, and it would be advisable to lock well to the fastenings of doors and windows, especially in stores where no person sleeps.

Sudden Death.—On Saturday afternoon last, an Irishman named Thomas Lefany, employed in the Gas-House, died very suddenly. During the morning he drank immoderately of ice water; at noon he felt unwell, and went to bed at his boarding-house. Some hours afterwards he was discovered to be very sick, and a doctor was sent for, but when he arrived, the man was dead. An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict returned that deceased died from cause unknown to the jurors.

Fires.—On Saturday night last the steam saw mill at New Haven was totally destroyed by fire; and on the same day the barn of Mr. Peter Parker in St. Joseph township was also burned down. We have not heard any further particulars.

Adams Co. Dem. Ratification Meeting.
Pursuant to previous notice the democrats assembled at the court house, in Adams Co., on Thursday, the 26th day of June, 1856, at 11 o'clock A. M. and organized by the appointment of Samuel L. Rugg, President, and James B. Smokey, Secretary.

On motion of D. Studabaker, Esq., a committee of five was appointed by the President to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, to-wit: David Studabaker, John McCormick, Andrew Luckey, Dr. Chamber, and Dr. McCormick.

On motion, the meeting appointed delegates to the Congressional Convention to be held at Kokomo on the 10th of July next, for the nomination of a candidate for Congress for the eleventh congressional district, to-wit: Samuel L. Rugg, David Studabaker, O. T. Hart, David McDonald, S. S. Mickle, and Wm. G. Spencer.

On further motion, the meeting appointed thirteen delegates to the judicial district convention, to be held at Fort Wayne in August next, to-wit: David Shovers, Peter Young, James Coffey, C. B. Lemasters, Dr. Chamber, J. Stults, P. N. Collins, Levi Ewing, Dr. L. Cook, E. A. Banner, L. French, D. McDonald, and James B. Smokey.

On motion of Mr. Hart, the meeting appointed a central committee to serve the ensuing year, and until their successors are appointed, to-wit: James B. Smokey, David McDonald, David Shovers, James Coffey, Samuel L. Rugg, and John Crawford.

On motion of Mr. Crawford, the meeting took a recess of an hour. After which the committee on Resolutions, by Mr. Studabaker its chairman, reported the following resolutions, which were read and unanimously adopted.

Resolved. That the old national flag, with whom the democratic party has repeatedly battled for the Presidency, has been successfully routed and driven from the field, and with it has disappeared the issues which divided the American people into two great national parties, and instead thereof sectional parties or factions have arisen, without presenting a single characteristic identifying them as national in their aims and designs, presenting for the approaching contest issues entirely sectional and local, fraught with great danger to the stability of the Union, or threatening its entire dissolution. And whereas, the exigencies of the times and the threatening aspect of political horizon calls for the most elevated patriotism and the soundest statesmanship in the administration of the general government; therefore

Resolved. That in the nomination of JAMES BUCHANAN, the democratic party has presented to the American people for the Presidency, a man whose statesmanship, patriotism, and energy demanded the Executive decision and energetic action; and it would appear that a misapprehension of orders previously issued to the Governor of Kansas had delayed the receipt of the orders in full authorized, to the military power of the government, and had produced the less efficient, and under the circumstances objectionable substitute of a civil posse to aid the Marshal and other officers of the law in the service and execution of process. The following is the telegraphic dispatch addressed to Gov. Shannon by the President of the United States on the 23d of May:

"Since my telegraph of this morning was sent, the Secretary of War has laid before me Col. Sumner's letter to you of the 12th inst. This suggestion strikes me as wise and prudent, and before this reaches you, decide measures will have been taken to have the process in the hands of the Marshal quietly executed."

Resolved. That we as democrats will use every honorable means to secure the election of state officers, and United States officers, that have or may be nominated for the ensuing election.
